(a) The necessary balance quantity of sugar will be supplied by Board of External Trade from their Godowns at Panjim and Cortalim.

2. The authorizations for lifting the sugar quota from the factory may be collected by wholesalers from Directorate of Civil Supplies and Price Control from 28th up to 30th instant.

3. The wholesalers will lift the quantity allotted, within the time limit, of 6 days from 1st November, 1963, and should communicate its arrival on the very day or the next day to the Directorate of Civil Supplies and Price Control under intimation to the taluka Administrator.

The Sarpanches of Village Grampanchayats may propose up to 1st November, 1963 to the Taluka Administrators the names of licensed Cooperatives and retailers of their respective area, to whom the sugar will have to be distributed for the village consumption during the above referred period.

4. The Taluka Administrators and Panchayat Secretaries should inform to Directorate of Civil Supplies and Price Control the sugar stock position in possession of wholesalers, retailers or cooperatives on 2nd November, 1963.

5. In the villages the distribution of sugar by the licensed retailers or cooperatives will be made under supervision of Sarpanches and when the latter ones are dealers, by the Block Development Officer of the respective area. The Secretaries of Panchayats shall check up daily the register in regards to the sale of sugar in ration cards. The checking of the register in towns or villages shall also be made by Inspection Services.

6. It is hereby notified that during the period 1st to 30th November, 1963 one unit of sugar, i. e., $\frac{1}{2}$ kilo per head per fortnight (1 kilo per month) should be supplied on ration cards.

7. The other terms and conditions are maintained as stated in public notice dated 12th July, 1963, issued by Board of External Trade and published in Government Gazette (Supplement) no. 28, Series III, dated 15th July, 1963.

Approved by authority.

Panjim, 25th October, 1963. — The Director of Civil Supplies and Price Control, Redualdo da Costa.
